COA Director's Report:

- COA reopening planning was discussed. Amy anticipates, at this time, the COA will physically open mid-August with Zoom fitness and art class remaining on Zoom through the summer/into the fall.
- Outdoor events, such as Grab-n-Go's will continue, and activities at other locations are being considered.
- Planning for indoor activity at the COA will include an emphasis on: space for social distancing, smaller groups but multiple sessions of an activity if needed, socializing outside of the COA will be encouraged, other venues such as the Elks or the Boys & Girls Club could be options for some events or programs and maintain the same cleaning and disinfection procedures.
- Amy will be providing a report to the Select Board on June 15 regarding the senior center space search.
- Amy reported Paul Guthrie reached out with interest in a Board vacancy. The Board asked Amy to determine current procedures for submitting application, resume to Select Board. The Board asked Amy to invite Paul to a meeting before the month ends.

New Business: none.

Meeting adjourned at 2:55 p.m.
